

WILEY

Mr. Tan Chor Meng

Council Member, Singapore Manufacturing Federation
Senior Director, John Wiley & Sons Singapore Pte Ltd

Chor Meng Tan is a seasoned business leader with extensive experience in EdTech, publishing, education, training, and technology. As Senior Director at Wiley Asia, Chor Meng has a proven track record of revitalizing business units, driving revenue growth, and pioneering innovative strategies across high-growth markets across Asia.

In his role as Chairman of the Board for SMF Centre for Corporate Learning (CCL), Chor Meng leads initiatives to empower workforce development and leadership training, aligning with Singapore's focus on productivity and innovation. His strategic vision has been instrumental in advancing education and training programs that equip industries with future-ready talent.

In addition to his corporate leadership, Chor Meng serves as a Board Member at the Copyright Licensing Society of Singapore (CLASS), where he collaborates with government agencies on intellectual property and AI-related policies. He is also a Steering Committee Member for the 10x1000 Tech for Inclusion program, a global initiative by Ant Group and IFC to train 10,000 tech leaders over 10 years. The program focuses on digital transformation, financial inclusion, and leveraging technology for societal impact, particularly in emerging markets.

Chor Meng holds an Executive MBA from Nanyang Technological University and certifications from UC Berkeley, INSEAD, and Tsinghua University, reflecting his commitment to academic rigor and practical expertise. His leadership extends to mentoring future leaders as a Mentor at NTU, further demonstrating his dedication to fostering talent and innovation.